The body was brought back to Fernie, where interment took place on Sunday afternoon last.

STORE ROBBERY CLOSELY CAPTURED

Three young lads, who had broken into the store of Charles Nicholas at Coleman at an early hour on Thursday morning last, were cleverly captured at Bellevue the same afternoon by Const. Harry Hammond, of the A.P.P. Hammond had been apprised of the robbery and had received a meagre description of one of the suspects. As far as could definitely be ascertained, cash to the extent of about $10 and a few small articles, including shoes, were missing. On Thursday evening, about 7 o'clock, Hammond happened to be on duty at Bellevue and noticing three strangers registered at the Bellevue Inn, decided to trail them. Going to the room occupied by them he found them in the act of changing their own clothes for those stolen and that the quantity of stolen goods was far greater than suspected by Mr. Nicholas, including even three of the best overcoats he had in the store. Hammond took him into custody, brought them to Blaimore and had Nicholas identify the goods. The trio appeared before Magistrate Gresham and were sent up for trial. Appearing before Judge McDonald on Friday afternoon, the three elected for speedy trial and each pleaded guilty to the charge. Following a severe lecture by the judge, they were sentenced as follows:

Albert Langhorne, 23, to nine months with hard labor in Lethbridge provincial jail.

Charles Wiles, 19, and Joseph Degnagard, 19, to six months each in Lethbridge jail.

The police have ascertained that at least one of the three has a criminal record and but recently came out after serving about a two-year term.

The stolen goods included three heavy overcoats, sweaters, socks, boots, handkerchiefs, safety razors, a pocket knife and cash, all valued at about $180. About eight dollars of the cash and all other goods with exception of socks and shoes the men had on them, were restored to Mr. Nicholas.

Entrance to the Nicholas store was effected through a door leading to the basement.

Supper was served, followed by dancing, etc.

In the grand drawing, first, second and third prizes were won by R. Hays, G. Sangster and A. Mazuta.

As a result of the social upwards of $100 was netted.

PAINTED FIRES

They were in the kitchen, Mrs. McMann peeling a tub of potatoes for the evening, slaughter, and Helmi dumping clothes for the next day's ironing. The latter lifted her dreamy eyes from the heat of the stove, and said, "Ain't clean clothes beautiful?" she said, "all full of nice smells of good air and sun. I like clean clothes like flowers."

Mrs. McMann regarded her with a puzzled look. "Sometimes I wonder about you, Helmi," she said, "kindly, you seem so marvellous, but all the time you don't seem to hear what people are saying to you—your dreamy looks and the queer things you say."

"Were you speaking to me, Mrs. McMann?" Helmi asked politely, "I'm sorry, I did not answer right. What was it you wanted me to tell you?"

Though outwardly pleased to have Helmi back again, Mrs. McMann's anger burned against the girl because of the fervent expression of joy her return brought from the men. Devout thanksgiving was expressed the first day she was there to wait on the table.

"Helmi at the helm again?" one little Jew cried out. "Don't leave us, Helmi—we missed you so! Don't leave us even if you did get married; we're willing to forgive you anything but desertion. 'Gosh, I'm glad to see you,' said the time-keeper, a man who seldom spoke."

"See here!" Mrs. McMann broke in, "what's the matter with you all? Didn't I feed you?—don't you? Didn't I slug grub here every day and hire a Chinaman to cook?"

"It's just we're glad to see her back—she's a pretty, young thing, and we like to look at her, Mrs. McMann," said the mine boss, whose special duty it was to keep peace. His wife had gone East and he was taking his meals at the boarding house. "The boys don't mean no harm to you."

Mrs. McMann's eyes narrowed. Helmi's agile movements, her boyish slim figure, her persistent sunny face, and the brilliancy of her coloring, gave her the same shock of bitterness the old actress feels when her theatre shakes with applause for the new star. Mrs. McMann, in her young days had "quessed" in many a camp where the youngest woman always travels next the pole. Now, by contrast with Helmi, she was merely a grumpy, old, stout woman, withered and battered by time, in the sight of men—and she knew it, and with the forever gone, can be very sweet, and I like to see the happiness of other people. Now here's Helmi and Jack. I'm that happy over those two kids, seems like it brings all back to me. It was springtime when Martha and me went off and surprised everyone. Springtime in old Ontario, when daff little lambs were springing up and down on their crooked little legs, and the air was full of that blue haze that trails on the trees like rags; and the frogs in the ponds were saying, 'Is tomorrow come yet?' You know the story, don't you, Mrs. McMann, of how the frogs was coaxed to go in for one day to the pond, and promised they would sure get out tomorrow?"

"Oh shut up, Sim, and eat your supper—I can't be bothered to listen to you."

Helmi looked up quickly. "I like Sim's talk," she said, "he says good words."

"He's just an old plaster, Helmi, and would rather talk than eat if he can get anyone to listen to him. He's like the canal-boat back home—the engine always had to stop when the whistle blew—that's Sim."

"But I like it," Helmi said again; "He talks kind. Tell me about the frogs, Sim."

"Some day I'll come to see you, an' I'll tell you, Helmi," Sim spoke with dignity now. He had been assailed professionally and could not recover all at once.

"He's trying to bum a meal, Helmi," said Mrs. McMann brutally. "I know him."

"Come on Sunday for dinner with me, Sim, and then you can tell me."

Sim nodded gratefully.

"It is the long black nights, Helmi, black without a star, silent, empty, not a voice, not even a dog-bark. I have been a night-watcher for ten years—no wonder I have a craving for voices and friends. Yes, I will come, Helmi, and thank you for being so kind."

Helmi's heart grew tender as she thought of the lonely old man sitting alone in the long dark night, stark with silence; for although she had been only two weeks alone, she knew what loneliness and fear a night can hold when one lies open-eyed, staring into the black unanswering depths, wondering, wondering. One can imagine such terrible things of lost men in trackless wildernesses. And Christ-mas seemed far away!

Alberta's Coal Production Coal production in Alberta last year was the largest ever, reaching a total for all grades of 6,938,755 tons. Figures compiled by the mines branch show that 1927 was 27,532 tons ahead of the best previous year, 1926, thus establishing a record.

Life's current coin is made of plain common sense.

The BABY

Why do so many, many babies of today escape all the little febrile spells and infantile ailments that used to worry mothers through the day, and keep them up half the night? If you don't know the answer, you haven't discovered pure, harmless Fletcher's Castoria. It is sweet to the taste, and it is gentle influence seems felt all through the tiny system. Not even a distant hint of dose of castor oil does so much good.

Fletcher's Castoria is purely vegetable, so you may give it freely, at first sign of colic or constipation, or diarrhea. Or, if you are not sure, it is the matter. For real sickness, call the doctor. But for all other ailments, a few drops of Fletcher's Castoria.

The doctor often tells you to do just this, as always says Fletcher's. Other preparations may be just as pure, just as free from dangerous drugs, but why experiment? Besides, the book on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold!

HOW WALKING COYOTE SAVED THE BUFFALO

Indian With Picturesque Cognomen Furnished Nucleus of Wainwright Herd

Tell to themselves, although they hunted them far and wide across the prairie, the Indians would never have exterminated the buffalo. When the white men took a hand they went at it enthusiastically, hammer and tong, so to speak. It is said that they even shot the poor animals from the windows of railway trains. This may be a tall story, for railways were not numerous in Western Canada in those days, but, at any rate, fifty years ago, the buffalo herds had dwindled so rapidly that it began to seem as if good citizens of the future would see their native animal in no more heroic pose than making his last stand among the mothballs. But the day came when the white men realized that it might be a fine thing to have a few live bison on hand.

Oddly enough, when the Dominion Government came to gather up a herd, it had to go to the United States for it. Odder still, the animals it bought from a Montana rancher had originally come from Canada and were now only coming back home. The oldest part of the whole story was that the buffalo was saved by an Indian who had no idea that he was to be the founder of the largest herd in the world, that which today tramps the acres of Wainwright Park, Canada's vast bison sanctuary on the Canadian National Railway line, east of Edmonton.

The Indian who saved the buffalo for posterity was a chap named Walking Coyote, a Pend O'Reille, who came up to Canada on a hunting expedition, in 1875 and lived with his squaw among the Piegiens. When he went home in the spring he took with him four buffalo calves. Ten years later, when his herd had increased to thirteen and was eating him out of the house, he sought a buyer. C. A. Allard, and his partner Michael C. A. Allard, a shrewd Mexican half-breed who could neither read nor write but who managed to amass fortune of $250,000 before he died, were in the market for buffalo and it was they who bought the Walking Coyote's collection. They added it to a small herd which had originally come from Manitoba, and ultimately sold the whole lot—and its numerous offspring—to the Canadian Government.

Allard bought the buffalo in 1907. Rounding them up was no easy task for Pablo, as the animals had been roaming wild for years, but, with the aid of the most experienced cowboys and a few Indian hunters in Montana, he managed to get them together after three seasons of extraordinarily difficult work. At the beginning, the Wainwright herd numbered approximately 700. In sixteen years it had increased to 12,000. In fact, so unmythical did it become that the Dominion Government found it necessary to transfer some of the animals to Wood Buffalo Park in the North West Territories, north of the Peace River, and the experiment has proved highly successful. Periodical slaughters have been exacting, too, and that is why old-timers of the west and gourmets of the east have been able to taste—once again for the old-timers, and for the first time as far as many of the others are concerned—buffalo steaks and pemmican. That is why Winnipeg policemen wear buffalo-skin coats in the winter now, instead of conokin.

Under Patronage Of Prince

His Royal Highness Sponsored Publication Of Canadian Birdland Poems

His Excellency Viscount Willingdon has accepted a copy of W. Havelock Robb's volume of Canadian Birdland poems, "The Quill and the Candle," which appeared just before Christmas under the patronage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The Prince has acknowledged the arrival at St. James Palace of the volume of poems, the original command which he gave last June.

The "Command" copy was an example of the Canadian binders art. It was done in green suede, gold and red with silk inside the covers and the presentation inscription inside was in gold lettering on suede.

Two Research Fellowships

Offered To Women Of Any University For Study In England

For the first time in history fellowships have been offered for university women engaged in scientific research. Two fellowships, tenable three years, are offered by the Girtton College, Cambridge. These fellowships are open to the women graduates of any university and each candidate must describe the course of research which she will pursue and shall submit a dissertation or published work, or any other evidence she may desire to offer of her fitness to undertake the proposed course of research.

The two fellowships offered are tenable for three years, one for research in mathematics, physical and natural sciences, and the other for research in any branch of learning except mathematics and natural sciences. This fellowship is a mark of commendation to those women who have done much in the past to further the interests of science by their untiring energy and their never-failing patience, which seem to surmount the greatest of difficulties. Times have changed according to those who have made a study of the situation, since the days when Marie Curie began her work on radium, in which she made contributions to science, which are outstanding even in this age of progress and enlightenment.

A Boon For Motorists

Swedish Doctor Invents Spectacles As Protection Against Glaring

Soon you may be able to drive at night undisturbed by the glare of oncoming headlights. A new kind of "spec" made especially to protect motorists' eyes, from blazing lights, has been invented by Dr. Carl G. Eos from chief medical officer of the Swedish navy. The spectacles are a clever combination of a German type of glass, greenish-yellow-gray in color, that shades into clear glass at the bottom of the lenses. The upper part shields the eyes from irritation; the lower permits unobstructed vision on the road for driving.

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been overstimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient, and

GREAT PRAISE FOR

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., have received the following letter from Mrs. Griffith, of 21 Merchison Ave., East Hamilton, Ont., concerning her experience with Baby's Own Tablets:

"Dear Sirs.—I wish to thank you for the handy little booklet you sent me on the Care of Children. My baby boy was six weeks old when I first used Baby's Own Tablets, being new to Canada, but since the first proof of their many uses in bringing up a family, I have never been without them, for they are worth their weight in gold. There is no trouble in getting the little one to take them and they often prevent an illness if taken in time. My first baby is now, at the age of four and a half years, a picture of health, and my nine-month-old baby is also well and happy. They are both a real good sample of what Baby's Own Tablets can do, for I have never yet needed a doctor for either of them."

The booklet to which Mrs. Griffith refers is entitled "Care of the Baby," and treats with what a mother ought to know for baby's sake. A copy of the booklet will be sent free to anyone requesting same from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE HAPPY MAN

The millionaire, a rich man, in his mansion on the hill, has more money than I, but just what can he buy with it? Three meals a day, first of all. They will doubtless cost more to serve than my three, but he cannot enjoy them any more than I can mine. A roof over his head. It is a wider and steeper roof than mine, and more rain will run off; but the rain that runs off mine is just as wet, and underneath I am just as dry. A good night's sleep, if he's lucky. He can own more of the world's surface than I. But try as he may, he cannot breathe up any more of its air; he cannot absorb any more of its sunshine; he cannot bribe the ocean to give him any more invigorating bath; nor the evening stars to shine any brighter over his estate. The world is full of pleasant sights and sounds and smells, but his eyes and ears and nose do not bring to him any sensation a particle more sweeter than mine bring to me. The world is full of lovely women, and each of us can love and marry only one at a time. Compared with the blessings we have in common, the few paltry blessings which he has and I have not are insignificant. And so you will not rightly call him a happy man who possesses much; he more rightly earns the name of happy who is skilled in wisely using the gifts of the gods, and in suffering hard poverty, and who fears disgrace and worse than death.—The Fraternal Index.

POTENTIAL MURDER

Motor speeding is potential murder. Every man who drives a car recklessly or in any fashion which invites an "accident," compels innocent riders in other cars to say nothing of pedestrians—to risk sudden death or dire mutilation.

If this is not "potential murder," what is?

The dangerous driver—whether he be drunken or only indifferent to the safety of others—is in precisely the position of a man who should fire a rifle at random down a busy street. He might hit no one.

But he is none the less a "potential murderer"; for it is his fault if the people within range are lucky enough to escape.

We would jail the man with the smoking rifle. But we have not reached a development of public indignation which leads us to jail the man with the rushing car.

He must actually hit somebody before we take serious action—and even then it is often not half serious enough.

Stripping these law-breakers of their licenses is a step in the right direction, but only a step—little more, indeed, than a stuncheon.

There must be protection for the law-abiding and decent motorist and for pedestrians on the public highways if we have to lock up all offenders until they know better than to run the risk of becoming murderers.—Family Herald and Weekly Star.

THE SCOTCH CAN STAND IT

Here is a reply by Jimmy Old Corn to a letter by London Nell in a recent issue of the Winnipeg Prairie Farmer:

Dear Editor.—London Nell was very sore at the many jokes appearing at the expense of the Scotch in regard to their close-fistedness. As she says, many of the stories are very stale and far-fetched, but it was not at all necessary for this Heart to tell up that she was not Scotch, for if she had been she would never have paid any attention to these tales, for we were inclined to make merry at the expense of any people we could not pick on a less vulnerable than the Scotch.

I suppose the reason for this is that the Scotch are a great people and they know it, and we know it, and they know we know it. To every country to which the Scotch have gone, they have made their mark. In Africa they had their Moffats and Livingstones; in Asia they had their Gen. Havelocks; Sir Colin Campbell and Finlatters. In Europe, you may have heard, or read, the poem, "The Passage of the Sea," and when Napoleon Bonaparte crossed the Alps was not Marshall McDonald, of Scottish descent, his right-hand man, and did not Napoleon declare "that if it had not been for the Scotch Greys and the bare-legged savages, he would have won the battle of Waterloo"? Regarding our own Canada, from the taking of Quebec to the present time, Scotchmen have figured largely in the making of our country, in opening up this great western country. Who did more than Selkirk, Simon Fraser and the Mackenzies? Today two great rivers and a mountain range bear their names.

Have we not lately been celebrating the Jubilee of Confederation, and were not the Hon. George Brown and Sir John A. Macdonald, the leading spirits in this great conformation, both Scotchmen? You have only to study the history of our country to know how largely the Scotch bulk in its making, and today is not our prime minister and half of his ministers Scotch or Scotch descent? The Scotch, knowing this, can afford to take these jokes at their expense philosophically. It is like the big blacksmith who was married to a very small woman, who used to tongue-lash him unmercifully. When people would tell him he was a poor specimen of a man to let a small creature like her abuse him so, he would say: "Oh, it amuses her, and it don't hurt me."

So I would say to London Nell, "not to be too solicitous in regard to your Scotch husband's feelings at the drives at the Scotch. He will weather them all right." As to my own nationality, the census man says I am English, though my father and his father came to Canada from England over a hundred years ago.—Jimmy Old Corn.

RUB! RUB!! RUB!!!

Ernie Whiteside was reading in the New York Herald-Tribune about the busiest editor in the United States, a Mr. Robbins, who writes all his own copy, operates his own linotype, makes up the paper, prints and mails it.

The rest of his time he devotes to his duties as town clerk, and when his office work is done he goes home and does all his own housework.

"Why," said Ernie, "this fellow if he keeps on, will be as busy as that old bachelor down at Blairmore, W. J. Bartlett of The Enterprise, who does all that that fellow claims, and then for a pastime writes what he knows about women."—Strathmore Standard.

BOLSHEVIK RULE

What are the prospects of the Bolshevik rule lasting? No one can at the moment answer that question. . . . Whatever may eventually happen, it is safe to say that it will not take the form of a return to the old regime.

The change is more likely to be gradual than catastrophic. Possibly it will take the form of a broadening of the base of the pyramid as the crumbling process which has already attached the apex continues. At the moment, at all events, the fact remains that there is no rival in sight. Notwithstanding their differences among themselves, and although they have been obliged to forsake many of the Communist ideals with which they started, the Bolsheviks in this, the tenth year of their reign, still hold the field unchallenged.—London Round Table.

HELPING THE NEWSPAPERS

Some people have an idea when they pay $2.00 a year for a newspaper, they own the whole proposition, including the editor, and can run both to suit themselves. Occasionally there is a fellow who comes in and pays up a year or two of arrears and then with a plying look at the editor as if he felt sorry he was going to lose his subscription, says: "I guess you might as well stop my paper, I would like to help you, but I am getting more papers than I can read." Bless your life, sonny, the editor never loses any sleep over losing a subscriber. He wants all the subscribers he can get; the more the better; but he wants those who appreciate his paper and considers they are getting value received for their money. We do not want your subscription as a matter of charity. If you do not want the paper, say so; it's a business proposition with the editor. We can pull the bell cord over the old grey mule to perfection and if we can't run a paper that is worth the price, we'll quit. Don't subscribe for our paper as a matter of charity. It cost you $2 a year, and you couldn't print one for $500.—Altoona (Kansas) Tribune.

"Seek to benefit others. Do good here and now. Cherish with reverence those who have passed.

B.C. GOVERNMENT WILL SPEND
$150,000 IN FERNIE DISTRICT

Fernie road district is not going to be neglected this year, according to Road Engineer Hayne, reports the Fernie Free Press. The provincial government has a policy that calls for the expenditure of $150,000 in the district.

Part of the plan includes the completion of the Corbin road and the straightening of the Red Trail from Michel to Crows' Nest. No definite arrangement, however, has yet been reached with the Alberta government over the proposed road changes at Crows' Nest, but the matter is being considered.

A good number of Cowley people attended the dance given by the bachelor girls at Lundbreck on Friday night, February the 3rd.

A meeting of the local U.F.A. was held on Saturday afternoon in the I.O.O.F. hall, to consider the advisability of forming a branch of the Pincher Creek Co-Operative Association. There was a fair attendance.

A pleasant evening was spent at a five-hundred drive, held in the I.O.O.F. hall on Wednesday. The prize winners were: Ladies' first, Mrs. B.O. Morrow, of Lethbridge; gentlemen's first, Mr. Mundle, of Lundbreck. Nine tables were at play.

Rev. Mr. Blount, of Pincher Creek, is giving a series of bible study talks in the Anglican church here. His first lectures were given on Monday last, taking the children in class study at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and lecturing to the adults on bible work at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The annual meeting of ratepayers of the Village of Cowley was held in the fire hall on Monday evening, February 6th. The auditor's report and financial statement for the year 1927 was reviewed and it was found that the affairs of the village were in a fairly healthy condition. Many matters of minor importance were discussed, but nothing in the line of general improvements or public works.

At 9 p.m., the secretary-treasurer, acting as returning officer, declared that 6 candidates had been nominated for the year 1928, as follows: Messrs. G. Ritson, H. C. Morrison, F. A. Tustian, J. T. Leigh, A. G. M. Swart and R. Littleton, and that failing the possibility of three of the candidates withdrawing, a poll would be held on Monday, February 13th, of which due notice of time and place would be given.

The farce comedy, "Fifty-Fifty," a three-act scene of love and laughter, was staged in the I.O.O.F. hall here on Thursday night of last week, under the auspices of the Cowley Women's Institute. The cast was as follows: Harry Brown, an artist—Fred Padgett; Paul Green, an author—Harry Harrison; Patrick O'Malley, a janitor—Donald Grant; Mrs. Poide, a landlady—Mrs. F. Padgett; Sophie Bland, a dancer—Miss Ella Emmerson; May Dexter, an enthusiast—Marie Harris; Mrs. Hawley, a collector—Beatrice Radford; Smudge, a valet—Dave Curry; Cap, a wanderer—Joe Shevels; Josephine, a seeker—May Turner. The cast were all members of the Oddfellow and Rebekah Lodges of Bellevue. They played to a crowded house. This play was much appreciated and was considered the best of its kind ever staged in Cowley, and, on behalf of the audience, the chairman, Rev. R. W. Griffith, expressed the wish that they return in the near future. Mrs. C. J. Bundy sang a song and Miss Doris McEwen played several piano selections, which helped out considerably on the programme.

A system of pipes, installed by the Romans about the year A.D. 80, has been discovered near Cologne, Germany, and said to be in excellent condition. The system was used to supply water from the Eiffel Mountains to Colonia Agrippina, now the town of Cologne.

SHOULD REDUCE AMUSEMENT TAX

The chief objection to the amusement tax when it was created was that it falls most heavily on those least able to pay. Many provincial governments have recognized this weakness by either elimination or reducing it.

The bulk of the tax is derived from the motion picture theatres which draw a great deal of their patronage from those unable to afford the cost of more expensive entertainment. The tax was imposed as a war expedient to raise more revenue. For that reason little objection was raised against it at the time. However, the war has been over for almost a decade and as far as this province is concerned the tax stands at its original rate.

British Columbia in the meantime has made three separate reductions and is now considering total abolition. Last year the Ontario government decided to exempt all tickets up to 25 cents. Manitoba is following suit, while in Saskatchewan the tax has never been imposed by the provincial government. Word from the Maritime Provinces is to the effect that the tax is to be eliminated.

An effort is to be made during the present session in Edmonton to secure a substantial reduction in the tax. This is a movement which concerns smaller centres as well as the cities. The government would be in line with sentiment in the other provinces if it decides to accede to the petition for alleviation.

The sum of $200,000 was collected through the amusement tax in Alberta for 1926. There would be some justification for taking this large amount out of the pockets of the people if it were turned back to the municipalities where it originated. —Calgary Albertan.

MOVE FOR TAX

RELIEF IN ALBERTA

The theatre proprietors of Alberta are co-operating in a fight for the reduction or elimination of the Alberta amusement tax and an appeal, largely endorsed by patrons and others, is to be made during the present session of the legislature.

It is claimed that the amusement tax was a war levy pure and simple, and it bears most heavily on those least able to afford it. The bulk of the tax comes from the motion picture theatres, and the motion pictures are the poor man's theatres, so that of the $200,000 collected by this tax in 1926 in Alberta, the big bulk came from people who are not able to purchase the more expensive tickets for the bigger shows.

A copy of this petition is posted at the local Orpheum theatre and already bears a large list of signatures. Every patron and every citizen who realizes the unfairness of this tax should make it their business to sign this petition at once.

Mayor Burns has been re-elected mayor of Coleman, by acclamation, and the following have been acclaimed to fill the three vacancies on the council: George Pattinson, James Moore and P. Smith. The following have been nominated for school trustees and as only two vacancies occur there will be an election contest on Monday next between Robert Evans, Albert Snowden, Thomas Johnson and William Graham.

An exhibition of absorbing interest to the ladies has been held in Calgary throughout the week. Manufacturers and importers of ladies' garments and millinery have engaged the first floor of the Palliser hotel, which is given over entirely to the display of styles for the ensuing spring season. The exhibition has been arranged so that buyers from country points may attend and get their style ideas at first hand, and also arrange for their supplies for the season. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hyslop, of Hyslop's Ladies' Wear, were visitors at the fashion show during the week.

GENERAL MOTORS TRUCK

A standardized motor road emergency service for the whole Dominion has been inaugurated by General Motors of Canada.

Specially designed by Canadian engineers at Oshawa, Ontario, a number of new and powerful trucks, which are believed to be the most advanced thing in road emergency trucks today, have been built and are in service. Within a short time large scale production on these trucks will be started at the newly re-opened Walkerville plant of General Motors.

H. H. Henchel, general sales manager of the truck and coach division of General Motors Products of Canada, Limited, has announced that every General Motors branch in the country will be equipped with at least one of these new trucks which will always carry two men specially trained for road emergency work. "From the interest, shown by our dealers and the orders they have already placed," Mr. Henchel added, "there is every reason to believe that every large dealer in Canada will in a short time secure one of these trucks. This is in addition to the ones we will definitely have at our branches."

TOLL HIGHWAYS ARE PLANNED IN ALBERTA

Calgary, Alta.—It is understood that an application will be made to the Alberta Legislature for a provincial charter empowering the Alberta Trackways Company to build a $2,400,000 concrete toll highway from Calgary to Bang. D. F. Whitney, of Calgary, one of the promoters of the Alberta Motor Association and a director of the Alberta Motor Association, asks for the right to build private toll roads from Edmonton to Calgary and from Edmonton to Jasper. It is proposed that the building of the two highways connecting Calgary with Edmonton and with Bang would be done by the Alberta Trackways Limited and the charter for the Edmonton-Jasper highway would be turned over to the Alberta Motor Association.

The construction of the Edmonton-Jasper highway would be a concrete base with McMurray tar sands for the finished surface, while the Edmonton-Calgary and the Calgary-Bang highways would be a 24-foot wide road of solid concrete construction. The Alberta Trackways company plan to obtain charters for the construction of concrete highways from Calgary to Macleod and Lethbridge and on to the United States boundary as soon as construction is started on the Bang-Calgary highway.

It is anticipated that this Bang highway will be ready for operation by the spring of 1930 if the provincial legislature grants a charter for this purpose at the coming session. The toll rates would be subject to the Alberta Utilities commission. The Alberta premier, J. E. Brownlee, in speaking of this suggestion for a privately owned toll road, said that the utmost consideration must be given to the project before any definite policy could be decided upon as to toll highways in the province.—The Christian Science Monitor.

The appellate division, on Tuesday, dismissed the appeal of Joseph Bonfadini, of Lethbridge, against his conviction by Judge Macdonald, of Macleod, of keeping a common gaming house, and affirmed his sentence to a fine of $50 or in the alternative to imprisonment for one month in Lethbridge jail. The defendant claimed that he was the secretary and manager of a social club. The appeal court held that Bonfadini was a keeper of a gaming house in the meaning of the act.

Canada To The Fore

Canada's amazing progress in the last few years is challenging the attention of the world. That progress is based not only on the great variety, extent and richness of this country's natural resources, but is founded in the renewed faith of Canadians in their Dominion and in the confidence they have in themselves, a faith and confidence born largely of the really tremendous achievements of Canada during the years of the Great War. In that titanic struggle the people of Canada showed wonderful energy, displayed great initiative, unsurpassed organizing ability, and hitherto undreamed of powers and strength. Thrown to a large extent upon its own resources, financial and otherwise, the Dominion courageously faced all problems and did so with marked success.

Few countries, if any, weathered the stormy days and difficult conditions of the after-the-war and reconstruction years as successfully as did this Dominion. Canadians became conscious for the first time of their national strength; the people discovered their national soul. Their former doubts and timorities, their self-deprecation, and what has commonly been termed their inferiority complex, disappeared, and has been replaced by courage, confidence and superb faith.

In former years it is true, Canadians had successfully grappled with large and difficult domestic problems, but, in these more recent years, the Dominion has boldly taken its place in the world arena. Its position today in the Councils of the League of Nations is an outstanding one, its place in the Commonwealth of British Nations is strong and assured. The score or more nations constituting the Pan-American Union, including the United States and the countries of Central and South America, are anxious that the Dominion should join them and give added strength and prestige to the Union, while other nations are encouraging the establishment of direct diplomatic representation with this country.

But even yet it is doubtful if many Canadians fully realize the rapid growth and steadily increasing power of their own country, because, as a rule, the average citizen pays little attention to so-called dry statistics in which the growth of a country is set forth. In a recent speech at Winnipeg, Mr. E. W. Beatty, president of the C.P.R., succinctly and impressively set forth a few facts, which will bear repeating. He noted, for example, the following:

Every working day last year Canadians took from their forests, products valued at $1,500,000.

From mines they took $280,000 daily.

Every working day they increased their capacity for manufacturing pulp and paper by 1,000 tons. Canada now manufactures one-third of the world's requirements of newsprint.

Every working day they added 700 horsepower in hydro-electric energy to the power already installed, and at the same time began work that will add 1,000 h.p. every day in the first six months of 1925.

Canada's export trade last year, with less than 10,000,000 people, was equal to the export trade of the United States, when the latter country had a population of 75,000,000.

Commenting on these and other statements in Mr. Beatty's striking survey, a Winnipeg paper writes: "As it is only another year in the past two years the Canadian people have been putting $200,000 into the savings banks every banking day, increasing deposits in other financial institutions correspondingly, investing in life insurance at the same relative rate, buying back millions in securities formerly held in Great Britain and Europe, providing almost unlimited capital for sound industrial enterprises, and have acquired a spirit of self confidence and self reliance."

Nor is it surprising that more people are emigrating from the British Isles to Canada than to any other country, many thousands more than to Australia.

Speaking at the opening of the great 5,500,000 bushel terminal elevator just completed by the United Grain Growers at Port Arthur, President T. A. Cregar predicted that, while Canada was now producing approximately 500,000,000 bushels of wheat annually, and is today the world's greatest wheat exporting country, production would be further increased until this Dominion would be producing one billion bushels of wheat annually.

And the thought for Canadians to keep ever in their minds, and to profit by, is that Canada is only just beginning to get into its stride.

Suggests Cure For Criminals

Physician Would Combat Crime By Use Of X-Ray

A sentence of "under the ray" instead of the gallows or a drab jail would be meted out to criminals if a group of Wheeling physicians make practical their theory of combating crime through the medium of the X-ray.

The experimenters, headed by Dr. R. J. Hersey, have revealed that for some time they have adopted a method consisting of dissolving the thymus gland with the X-ray.

Dr. Hersey said their work tended to show there is a certain gland near the throat of small children which should vanish as the child grows up, but they found it in many criminals and insane persons. It is their theory that this ductless gland causes persons to be abnormal and that the trouble can be eradicated with the X-ray.

After studying the faces of Nathan Leopold, Richard Loeb and others, Dr. Hersey said he found in all of them the tell-tale characteristics of gland cases.

Only the uninformed endure the agony of crime. The knowing ones apply Holloway's Corn Remover and get relief.

World Wheat Pool Conference

Will Be Held In Regina On June 5, 6 and 7

Preliminary arrangements for the third international wheat pool conference were discussed at a meeting of the international conference committee held here in Winnipeg recently.

The conference will be held in Regina, June 5, 6 and 7, and it is expected all the important wheat exporting countries of the world will be represented.

No statement was made concerning the preliminary plans discussed recently, but it was announced the committee would meet again in May to arrange final details.

Alberta Cattle For U.S.

According to figures compiled by Samuel C. Reast, American Consul at Calgary, more than $500,000 worth of cattle from Alberta were exported to the United States between July 1st, 1924, and November 30th. Approximately 12,000 head of stockers, feeders and butcher cattle were shipped south, 1,440 being invoiced through Lethbridge.

33,000 New Colonists Added To Canada's Population In 1924 Through C.N.R.

Approximately 33,000 new colonists were directly added to Canadian population in 1924 through the instrumentality of the Department of Colonization and Development, Canadian Pacific Railway. Of these roughly 25,000 moved directly through channels created by the Department into agricultural or domestic service, farm training or farm ownership. Settlers moved from the United States by the Department's organizations totalled 11,000, practically all of which are established on farms.

FOUND A HEALTH

BUILDING TONIC

A Nova Scotia Lady Was In An Anaemic Condition

Men and women who do not sleep well and are not refreshed and strengthened by a night's rest, are generally suffering from this, watery blood. The never fail, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, from first dose to last they purify and strengthen the blood, and in this way promise better appetite, better rest at night, and renewed strength.

Mrs. Mary E. Uhlman, Williams-town, N.S., writes: "I have received so much benefit from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that I feel myself ungrateful if I did not let you know."

I was in a very poor state of health and reached the stage where I had to remain in bed. A doctor was called in and he told me I had no organic trouble, but was simply run down from overwork. I had been left with a family to support, which I did by dressmaking. The doctor said my blood had almost turned water, and advised a rest cure. I did not see how it was possible for me to take a very long rest, so I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon I found my strength returning and before long I was able to go about my duties as usual again. This was a few years ago, and my health remained good until about a year ago, when I broke out with humor of the blood. Again I consulted the doctor, who said my blood had become so thin that it had really poisoned itself. I told him I had bought several boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and he told me to go on taking them as he thought they were just what I needed. I took eight boxes and again was in good health. I can therefore recommend these pills to all in a weak or run-down condition."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents a box. Try them today.

Has Firm Foundation

Sometimes viewing the progress of our next-door neighbor, Canadians have felt discouraged. The United States was moving ahead so rapidly, and Canada's progress was apparently snail-like. It is true that our rate of advancement has not been so rapid, but we have been building on a firm foundation and we are now in a position to reap the benefits. The next ten or fifteen years should see a development that will bring joy to the heart of every Canadian.

Was Great Shopkeeper

Large Business Built Up In England By John Sainsbury

John James Sainsbury, founder of Messrs. J. Sainsbury, provision merchant, who has died at his home at Highgate, N., London, Eng., at the age of 83, is described as one of Britain's greatest shopkeepers.

He started as a boy in an old shop in Drury Lane, and when he married at the age of 24—50 years ago—he opened a cheesemonger's shop in the same street. He lived to see this tiny shop develop into a colossal business, which owns more than 100 shops in London alone, and many more in the provinces.

This business is estimated to be worth nearly $1,500,000 ($7,500,000), and it is still in the Sainsbury family, all the shares being held by Mr. John's six sons and six grandsons.

From the time when Mr. Sainsbury began to make his Drury Lane shop a success he could never be tempted to buy anything other than the best, and this, combined with the facts that he tried always to present his goods in the most attractive way and to have them sold by the most attractive assistants, accounts for his success.

Times Have Changed

College Rules For Young Ladies Were Strict In 1784

College was a grim, serious place for the modern co-ed's pre-revolutionary prototype, documents recently unearthed at Cambridge, Mass., indicate. Rules for conduct for "young ladies of M. Holyoke, in the year 1834," have been brought to light from the Harvard University archives.

These regulations forbid Mr. Holyoke students reading the Atlantic monthly, Shakespeare, Scott, Robinson Crusoe and other immoral works.

Young ladies were allowed to associate with no "gentlemen acquaintances" unless they were "returned missionaries or agents of benevolent societies."

Unless prevented by "a freshet, earthquake or some other calamity," each young lady student was expected to walk at least a mile every day.

New Anti-Aircraft Gun

Weapon Has Vertical Range Of Three Miles

A new three inch anti-aircraft gun and mobile mount has been designed by the ordnance department of the United States army and adopted by the war department.

This new weapon is capable of sending 25 shots a minute almost three miles straight up and its horizontal range is more than twice that distance. Its mobile carriage presents the latest developments, combining stability and mobility, and can be placed in readiness to fire in 15 minutes from a carrying position. It is so light that it can be moved across the country by a standard four wheel drive truck.

New Wheat Varieties

Good Yields Are Secured From New Seed Known As "Burbank's"

Quality An average yield of fifty bushels to the acre from a forty-acre field near Nanton, Alberta, is the record claimed by H. Widdie, for a new variety of wheat known as "Burbank's Quality." In a letter to The Calgary Herald, Mr. Widdie said he threshed 2,000 bushels of it from 40 acres and that it graded No. 2. Other varieties on his farm yielded from 30 to 35 bushels to the acre and graded No. 5, 6, and feed. "Burbank's Quality" matures early.

Radio Telephone Links

Winnipeg and London Conversation Carried On Between Western City and Mother Country

Linking up the gateway of Western Canada with the mother country, a trans-Atlantic radio telephone conversation between Winnipeg and London, England, has been successfully carried out. For 15 minutes an official of the Manitoba Government Telephone System conversed with a member of the London postal telephone. So clear was the reception that the London official complained of the tap-tap of the telegraph ticker in the Winnipeg office.

"For heaven's sake stop that telegraph ticker in your room, it is deafening," he said to William Walton, long distance chief of the Manitoba telephones.

The call as it came to Winnipeg, a distance of about 5,000 miles, passed through New York, Chicago, Minneapolis and Fargo, N.D.

Two Trophies For Aviation

Awards For Greatest Feet Of 1927 Exclusive Of Stunting

Two important aviation trophies for the aviator considered to have done the greatest feat of the year 1927, exclusive of stunting, are to be awarded.

One is being given by the Department of National Defence and the other by the International League of Aviators. The latter trophy is accompanied by a cash prize enabling the winner to take part in international aeronautical events. The aviation League of Canada is charged with the choice of the winner.

The name of Captain F. Stevenson, former pilot of the Western Canada Airways who attained the record of 800 hours flying last year is mentioned in connection with the government trophy. Captain Stevenson was killed recently near The Pas, Man., but it is believed a posthumous award would be in order.

For Scalds or Burns.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is a standard remedy for the prompt treatment of scalds and burns. Its healing power quickly soothes the pain and aids a speedy recovery from the injury. It is also an excellent remedy for all manner of cuts, bruises and sprains, as well as for relieving the pains arising from inflammation of various kinds. A bottle in the house and stable saves many a doctor's and veterinarian's fee.

Good Market For Milk Products

It is estimated that the production of milk and milk products in Canada is worth $250,000,000 per annum at the present time. The prospects of two markets for Canadian producers, the old established one in Europe and the new one in the United States, makes the outlook for the industry decidedly rosy in the opinion of the Dominion Dairy-Commissioner.

Aspirin

The whole world knows Aspirin as an effective antidote for pain. But it's just as important to know that there is only one genuine Aspirin. The name Bayer is on every tablet, and on the box. If the name Bayer appears, it's genuine; and if it doesn't, it is not! Headaches are dispelled by Aspirin. So are colds, and the pain that goes with them; even neuralgia, neuritis, and rheumatism promptly relieved. Get Aspirin—at any drugstore—with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacturers. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer, the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.

ALBERTA ROAD TAKEN OVER BY CAN. PACIFIC RY.

Edmonton, Alta.—The sale of the Lacombe and Northwestern Railway to the Canadian Pacific Railway was announced by Premier Brownlee. After considerable negotiations President Hestly, of the C.P.R., accepted the offer of the line and agreed to indemnify the province against future liability on outstanding five per cent bonds for $273,700, and in addition to pay the province $1,500,000 in cash, and construction and extension of the road to a point at or near Telfordville, the extension to be completed within three years. The length of the proposed extension is 20 miles.

This extension will provide that no part of the district is more than 10 or 15 miles from the railroad. In making the announcement, the premier stressed the fact that every effort had been made by the government to bring the line to Edmonton. He said: "In our negotiations, we urged very strongly, upon the C.P.R., that construction of the line be carried right into Edmonton, but it was found impossible to get this done at the present time."

The present terminus of the Lacombe and Northwestern Railway is at Breton, and the proposed extension will bring it to a point near Telfordville. The premier intimated that the deal with the C.P.R. means a saving of $175,000 a year to the province. The physical valuation of the line had been placed at $2,100,000 by John Callaghan, deputy minister of railways. Premier Brownlee expressed satisfaction at the conclusion of the negotiations with the C.P.R. The premier also stated that he had still not received the terms of Mr. Henry Thornton for the separate purchase of the A. and G. W. Railway.

Plans To Inaugurate Atlantic Air Service

Will Start In September Says Commander C. D. Burney

Washington.—Commander C. D. Burney, a member of the parliament of Great Britain, told President Coolidge that plans have been made for the inauguration in September of a regular air service between London and New York in which a fleet of six gigantic lighter-than-air ships will regularly cross the Atlantic ocean.

Commander Burney, who said he was the designer of a passenger as large as the steamer Mauretania and now being built in England, said that the ship would make the passage from London to New York in 38 hours and the other way in 48 hours.

He said the cost of a passage would be $400 and that a ship would leave London every other day and New York on alternative days. The company expects the ships to land in either Montreal or New York, depending on prevailing winds.

In addition to 100 passengers, the airships will be able to handle ten tons of freight or mail, Burney said.

Wins Race With Wolf

Indian Kills Animal After Four Mile Chase Through Bush

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.—Armed only with an axe, Angus Kopiclak, 19, Indian trapper and known as a runner, chased a wolf four miles through heavy brush and won the race. Kopiclak sighted the wolf while following his trap line. The chase led through swamps, thick underbrush, and over hills. Snowshoes gave the Indian an advantage over the heavy brush. Several times Kopiclak came almost within striking distance. Finally he cornered the thoroughly beaten animal and finished it with his axe.

Dairy Production Declines

Calgary.—Tremendous prosperity among the farmers of Alberta, following remarkably successful seasons for grain growers, was held by Hon. George Hoadley, M.P., partially responsible for the serious decline in dairy production which had been observed in the province last year. Mr. Hoadley was addressing the manufacturers' section of the Alberta Dairy-men's Association 23rd annual convention.

Would Outlaw Submarines

Washington.—A demand that the submarine be outlawed as a weapon of naval warfare was made in the House, Tuesday, by Representative Frothingham, Republican, Massachusetts. He proposed that the nations of the world unite in abolishing the submarine and prohibit its construction.

Stories Are Discredited

Talk Of Semi-Tropical Land In Northern B.C. Is Largely Fiction—The making of aerial maps is resulting in a greater interest of prospectors to Canada's many mining fields and is a time-saver for company organizers. A. H. Narraway, chief aerial survey engineer of the topographical surveys, told the convention of Dominion land surveyors here.

Mr. Narraway declared maps being made through the use of aerial photography were actually the best and most accurate obtainable. Talk of newly discovered semi-tropical land in Northern British Columbia which was said to be kept warm through the eruption of hot springs was largely fiction, according to a representative to the delegates by K. P. McCusker.

Speaking of a recent survey he conducted in the northern stretches of the Pacific coast province, Mr. McCusker said he had found luxuriant meadows over a large land and large stretches of open country which he termed "summer-land." It could not be classed as semi-tropical, however, the speaker declared. The country abounded in game, goats, sheep, caribou and grizzly bears. Grass grew to such a height that it was clear no heavy snow fell during the winter.

New Governor Installed

James McNeill Takes Over Administration Of Irish Free State—Dublin.—Escorted by a troop of Free State Cavalry, James McNeill, was placed in the Irish Free State, Tuesday, to Leinster House where the chief justice administered the oath of office.

The cavalry escorted Mr. McNeill and his wife, who rode in a motor car over a route of three miles to the viceregal lodge.

There was no demonstration on route and the spectators were drenched by a heavy rain.

After the oath had been administered Governor-General McNeill was presented to all the high Free State officials and their wives and then went to Leinster House where his first public act was to place a wreath on the cenotaph there in honor of the Irish patriots, Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins.

Timothy Healy, the retiring governor-general, had quietly vacated the vice-regal lodge overnight with his daughter, driving to his old home in the Chapelloz on the banks of the Liffey.

Building Starts At Flin Flon

Bank Already Erected And Contract For Drug Store Let

Flin Flon, Man.—That the much talked of Flin Flon mine promises big business in the future is proven by the fact that the Royal Bank of Canada has built a branch there. This is the first business to be started since the taking up of the option, and the bank will be followed shortly by a drug store, the contract for which has been let.

The new Flin Flon hockey team has accepted a challenge from the Northland Hockey Association for a match during dog derby week, and this will probably be arranged. A first class rink has been built at the mine and the miners are busy practicing for the March date.

Form New Federation

Winnipeg.—With 200 Hungarians present, the Federation of Canadians of Magyar Descent was formed at a convention here. Dr. John Ujvary, Regina, was elected president and Nicholas Istovnyfi, Hamilton, Ont., secretary. The objects of the federation are to create citizenship organizations which would make the descendants of Magyars who came to the Dominion self-sufficient Canadians, assist them in land development work and aid in philanthropic and charitable operations.

Had Completed War History

London.—The Daily Sketch said that it was understood that the late Earl Douglas Haig had completed a history of the great war. The book was said to have contained more of the secret history of the conflict than is now available, and Earl Haig decided that it should not be published during his lifetime. It is believed that he left implicit instructions how the book should be dealt with.

Order American School Closed

Constantinople.—The government has ordered the American school at Broussa, Turkey, closed on the ground that it has broken Turkish law by converting students. The government recently investigated the school after it had been reported that four Moslem girl students had been converted to Christianity. The Turkish law prohibits religious propaganda in the schools.

Other Nations Would Like Canadian Envoy

Would Mean Admission Of Canada To Pan-American Union

New York.—Although members of the Canadian Government have stated that the Dominion will not take the initiative in applying for membership in the Pan-American Union, a special dispatch to the Herald Tribune from its correspondent at Havana indicates that Canada would be speedily admitted, provided she extended her diplomatic connections to several Latin American countries.

Described as "curious developments running under the surface," the dispatch says: "Unofficially a suggestion has been made to persons who would transmit it to the proper Canadian authorities, that if the Canadian Government would send diplomatic representatives to Chile, Argentina, Brazil, and Mexico, as she has done to Washington, she would be speedily admitted to the union."

Youthful Burglars Captured

Two Gangs Are Rounded Up By Winnipeg Police

Winnipeg.—Two gangs of youthful burglars, members ranging in age from 14 to 19 years, and totalling 11 in number, have been rounded up by police recently. One gang devoted its efforts exclusively to stores and residences in the west end of the city, while the other gang operated over a wide area in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

The first group of youthful bandits was gathered in by police as the result of an investigation into a series of store robberies. The second coup was made when the youths were surprised by police while in the act of robbing a local drug store.

MANITOBA'S NEW LIQUOR BILL IS FINALLY ADOPTED

Winnipeg.—With but brief debate, Manitoba's new liquor bill, which provides for the sale of beer by the glass in hotel parlors and clubs, and the purchase of hard liquor under a cash-and-carry system from Government commission stores, was adopted in the Legislature.

The act probably will be proclaimed February 15, Hon. W. J. Major, Attorney-General, stated recently. Preparations for opening beer parlors are well under way by hotel men in city and rural districts, and extensive alterations have been made by some in fitting their premises in accordance with the new act.

Under the act, provision is made for taking a local option vote in the 23 "dry" constituencies of the province.

The Manitoba Liquor Commission is given wide powers under the act, and severe penalties for infractions are provided. The government will take all liquor profits, instead of dividing them with the cities and municipalities as at present, and has the right to purchase or build a brewery, if conditions warrant.

Whenever he appears in the lead of the dog team he draws all eyes, for Mountie used to lead the patrol of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the Far North and has earned the Victoria Cross, men say.

Pay Tribute To Senator

Present Portrait To Senator Desaulles To Commemorate Hundredth Birthday

Ottawa.—The remoteness and the nearness of those stirring events which have given their color to the history of Canada were strikingly emphasized when both Houses of Parliament, having adjourned for the occasion, a portrait of Senator Georges Casimir Desaulles was presented to him by his fellow parliamentarians, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of his birth. Hon. Mr. Desaulles celebrated his centenary, September 29, 1927.

Hon. Hewitt, Bostock, Speaker of the Senate, made the presentation in the Senate chamber.

Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister, expressed his pride in having the honor to join with the Senate in congratulating Hon. Mr. Desaulles on the age he had attained and on the service given with such great distinction to himself, his province, and to his country. It would be of interest to all to know that in the rebellion of 1837 Mr. Desaulles, then a boy of ten, was placed under arrest and although not imprisoned, was put under surveillance for almost a year. Senator Desaulles at present had a distinct recollection of the stirring events of those days. His mother was a sister of Louis Joseph Papineau.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, associated himself and the Opposition with the Prime Minister's sentiments.

Reveals Operations Of Smugglers

New York.—A confession of Florent Lamotte, a sailor, has revealed the operations of the diamond gang, which has smuggled hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of diamonds from Europe during the past year. He confessed to bringing 55 packages of diamonds into New York last year. Arrested last November, Lamotte had $100,000 in diamonds concealed in the heels and toes of his shoes.

Land Surveyors In Convention At Ottawa

Report Of Summer's Work Is Given To Government

Ottawa.—After months spent in the uninhabited or sparsely settled sections of Canada, the Dominion land surveyors are here to compare notes, exchange experiences and to lay before the Government and the people of Canada the result of their summer's work.

When the convention opened about 100 surveyors and engineers, headed by H. W. Cautley, of Edmonton, the president of the association of Dominion Land Surveyors, occupied the chair. His address was the feature of forenoon's meeting.

The tremendous area in Canada which still remains practically unexplored and unknown was emphasized by Mr. Cautley.

"No surveyor has ever set foot on the greater part of Canada," he said, "and less than one quarter of our wonderful country has ever been adequately mapped out or can be until the surveys are made."

Sees No Possibility Of Peace Department

But Resolution Will Start Debate Says Miss MacPhail

Windsor.—Terminating Toronto the "most reactionary city in Ontario," Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P., speaking at the banquet of the Border Cities Business and Professional Women's Club, delivered a vigorous attack on war, its makers and planners.

Miss MacPhail said she had placed a resolution upon the order paper at Ottawa calling on the government to authorize the formation of a government department for the promotion of international peace and goodwill.

"We have a department that is doing all it can to promote the military spirit," Miss MacPhail said. "Why should we not have a department working to definitely promote the spirit of amity and international friendship? I know my resolution won't carry, but it makes excellent ground for debate."

Ban On Export Liquor Houses

Lash Is Suggested As Penalty For Drug Peddlers

Victoria.—Discussing liquor legislation in the Legislature, Attorney-General A. M. Manson said the fight began in 1914 when now borne from export liquor houses were to be put out of business. In view of the unanimity in this respect among the provinces, he did not think the Senate would venture again to reject the legislation, and had been done twice before after it passed the House of Commons.

He was hopeful also, he said, that the Federal House this year would adopt the British Columbia suggestion that the lash be added to the penalties for drug peddlers.

PRAYER BOOK REVISION IS STILL A LIVE QUESTION

London.—The controversy here over the Church of England prayer book continues unabated.

At a meeting of the London Diocesan Association of the Federation of Catholic Priests, an Anglican body, a resolution was passed urging the whole question of the revision of the prayer book should be postponed until after the Lambeth conference of 1930. The resolution declared the bishops' amendments in the deposited prayer book were not likely to commend themselves either to the Anglo-Catholics or the Evangelicals, and it pointed out there were churches in communion with the Church of England that had not yet been consulted with regard to the alterations in liturgical standards.

Lord Halifax, a leader in the Malines conversations, insisted on a similar measure of freedom being accorded the Church of England as is now enjoyed by the established churches of the Presbyterian Church of Scotland. He expressed the belief that if the people of the church united on this they could command success, but that otherwise they would remain powerless.

There are anxious times for the church, said the Archbishop of York, speaking at the opening of a mission exhibition at Sheffield recently. "Those of us who are in a position to know, are aware that the decision to be reached next week in the church assembly may involve the whole course of history for the church of this land. We pray we may have the wisdom to discern God's purpose and the courage to follow it," he said.

CUSTOMS PROBE INTERIM REPORTS Tabled In House

Ottawa.—Interim reports of the Royal Commission headed by Chief Justice J. T. Brown, of Saskatchewan, which investigated the Department of Customs and Excise were tabled in the House of Commons in sequence to the general report recently made public.

Saskatchewan ports and concerns figure rather conspicuously.

Dealing with the customs port of Regina, the commission expresses the view that it "requires a thorough reorganization."

"The inquiry impresses us with the view that the collector has not a sufficient grasp of the situation, nor does he give it effective supervision. The work and responsibility of supervision seems to have rested largely on the chief clerk."

"We call attention to the fact that it was in this port and its sub-port of Yorkton that several companies whose activities are reported on elsewhere carried on their business enterprises during comparatively recent years. We refer to the Canada Drug Company, the Yorkton Distributors, the Prairie Drug Company, the Regina Wine and Spirits, Dominion Distributors and the Regina Vinegar Company. All of these companies appear to have conducted their business in persistent and open contravention of the laws and regulations governing excise, and yet they were seriously expected to carry on a sound 'drug' and 'vinegar' business. That such a condition of affairs could have existed at all, let alone have continued for several years, shows not only a lack of intelligent and efficient supervision on the part of the collector of the port but serves to demonstrate a breakdown in proper and efficient supervision on the part of the department as a whole."

The sub-collector at Yorkton was alarmed at the situation in his support brought about by the activities of some of these companies, and although he called the attention of the collector at Regina to the difficulties and dangers with which he was faced, he seemed to get very little helpful or sympathetic consideration.

Eminent Divine Is Dead

Dr. W. Leslie Clay, Head Of Presbyterian Church, Dies In Winnipeg

Winnipeg.—After an illness of two weeks, Rev. W. Leslie Clay, D.D., eminent leader of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Victoria, B.C., died in a hospital here.

Dr. Clay, who was in his 60th year, suffered a heart attack while journeying from Victoria to Winnipeg and the opening ceremonies of Parliament. Arriving here Thursday, January 20, he was taken from the train and confined to a hospital.

Canadian People Confident

Halifax.—"I am struck by the note of confidence which Canadian people have regarding the future of this Dominion and also by the enlargement of knowledge which you have regarding Canadian resources, both agricultural and mineral," declared Rt. Hon. L. C. M. Amery, Secretary of State for the Dominions, in an interview at Government House, where he was entertained during his brief stay in the city.

Urges Sales Agency

Winnipeg.—Establishment of a national co-operative selling agency to handle the products of the various provincial organizations was advocated by C. B. Gooderham, Dominion apiculturist, at the annual convention of the Manitoba Beekeepers' Association. Mr. Gooderham also urged Government standard grades for honey, and curtailment of the present price cutting and individual selling.

Naval Men Go To England

Winnipeg.—On their way to England to man the new destroyer, "Tormentor," and bring her back to Canada, three officers and six petty officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy, passed through Winnipeg recently on the Canadian National Railway. They will sail from Halifax on the steamship Lapland. The sailors are from Esquimaux and were the crew of the "Triton."

Enlisted men of the United States army have collected $2,748,934.90 interest on savings in the last 75 years.

gamut, in colorings, snug, small fitting hats, in novel combinations of Straw and Silk, Straw and
